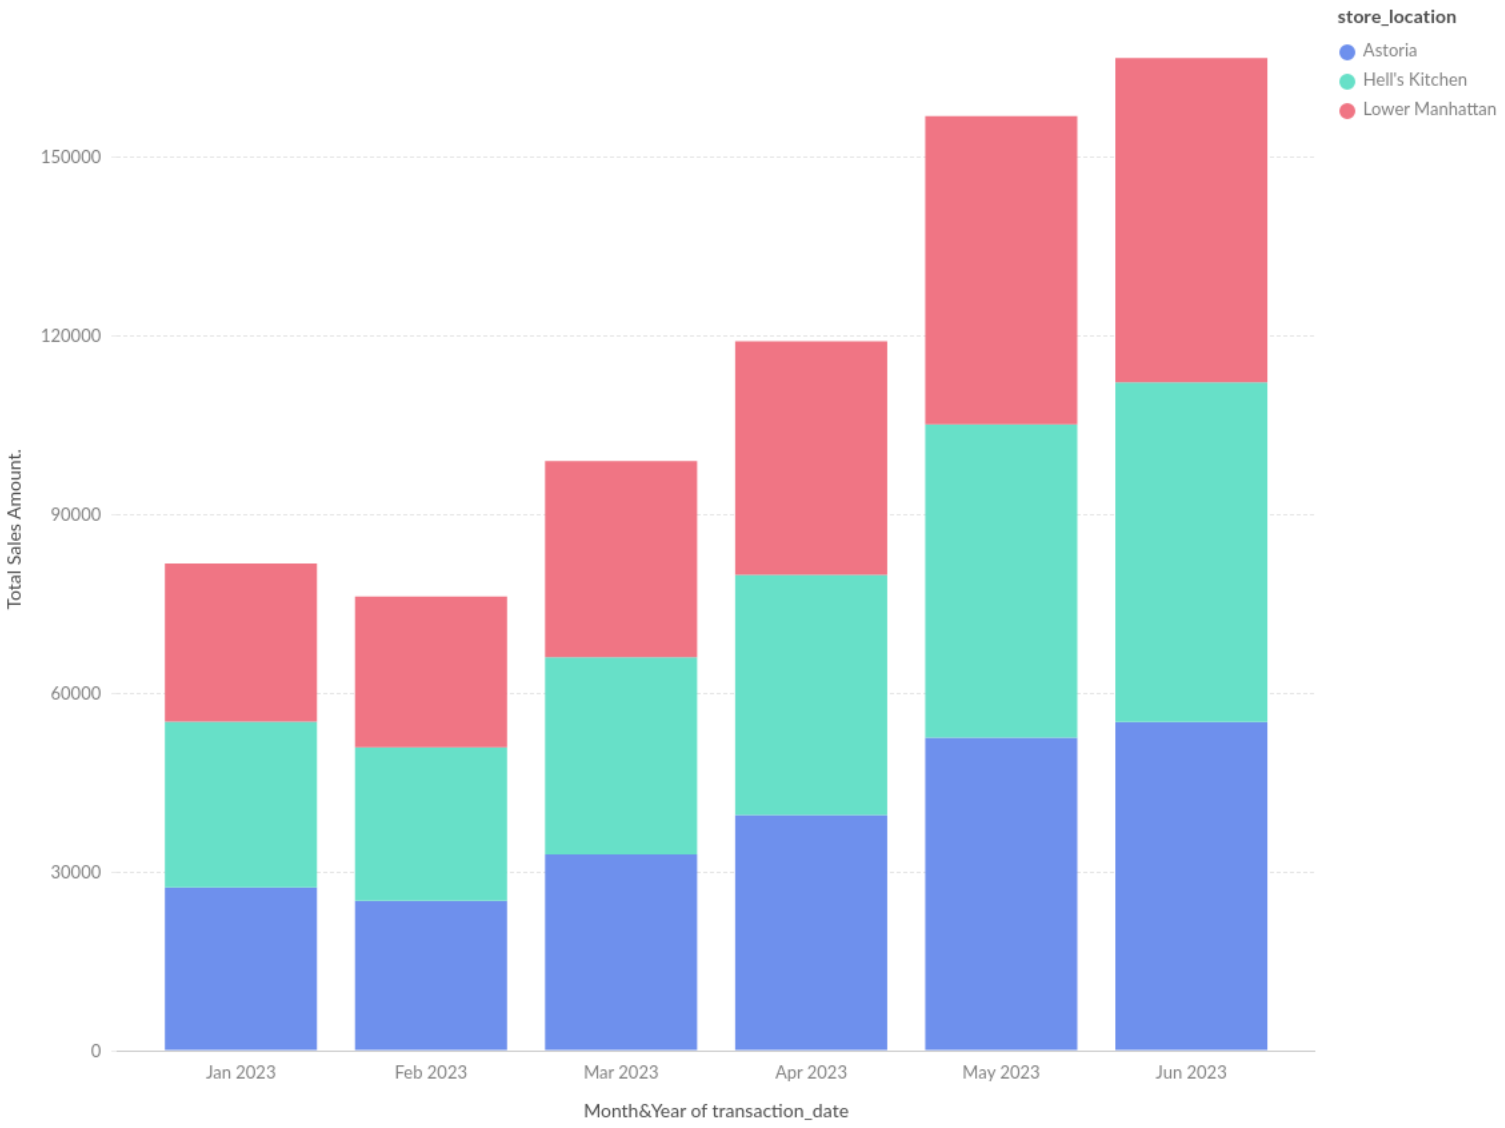
Monthly Sales by Store


It combines the monthly trend and store comparison in one visualization. Each column shows the month's total revenue, while its colored sections show each store's contribution. This helps us to see which stores drive monthly increases or decreases.